

SPOTLIGHT ON BENSON-SHORT MEMORIAL WINDOW

By Kathy O'Shea, Trustee Chair

Did you know??

I would like to call your attention to one of our beautiful stained-glass windows and its history. Formally known as the Benson-Short Memorial Window, many of us refer to it as the Cross and Rose Window by the Balcony Stairs.

This window was dedicated March 4, 1979, in memory of the P.D. Benson Family and the W. Lawrence Short Family.

It was designed and constructed by members of the Workshop in Stained Glass at Trinity UMC.

Since the Middle Ages, stained glass windows have been filled with symbolism as a way to teach us a scripture lesson, to remind us of God's love for us, to fill us with the joy of nature around us and to give us peace by absorbing the beauty of the art. This window is no different. The creators of this glass art work left us with these words below describing their vision.

"The window, bearing some agony and some delight, uses the timeless symbol of the cross together with the climbing rose with a bloom born only for a season. The cross of suffering and death with the resplendent beauty of a rose speaks to us of the tension and the ambiguity of the common but yet good life."

The mission of the Trinity United Methodist Church is to be a welcoming ministry to all persons equally; to nurture spiritual development, fellowship and outreach.

PASTOR'S LOG

By Pastor Tony Brown

A month before General Conference opens, an ad hoc group of more than 270 U.S. delegates is giving public notice of their three legislative priorities for The United Methodist Church's top lawmaking assembly.

Those priorities are what many delegates have taken to calling "the three R's" — regionalization, the Revised Social Principles and the removal of exclusionary language against LGBTQ people.

The primary and reserve General Conference delegates also are inviting their fellow U.S. delegates to sign onto the statement ahead of the denomination's international gathering April 23-May 3 in Charlotte, North Carolina.

After the battles of the 2019 special General Conference and the strains of COVID that delayed the next regular session to this year, the delegate signers expressed their desire for a different kind of legislative meeting.

"We hope that the gathering in Charlotte, N.C., will bear witness to a more perfect way of faithful service to Christ, who makes all things new and reconciles all people unto himself," said the delegates' statement, referencing 2 Corinthians 5:16-20.

The delegates said they "pray that we may transcend the conflicts that have so long divided us."

Their statement comes as United Methodists are grappling with the disaffiliation of 25% of the denomination's U.S. churches over the past four years. Those churches left under a policy instituted by the special 2019 General Conference that allowed churches to leave with property "for reasons of conscience" related to homosexuality, if they met certain conditions. The disaffiliation policy expired at the end of 2023, but a number of proposals submitted to the coming General Conference seek to extend disaffiliation.

That's not the goal of the delegates who signed the statement. Instead, they note they are part of the 75% of U.S. congregations that remain United Methodist. They also say they are eager to work with fellow United Methodist delegates in Africa, Europe and the Philippines in healing, reconciliation and rebuilding the denomination.

"My heart really yearns for a church that, first of all, is Christ-centered," said the Rev. Dawn Taylor-Storm, one of the delegate signers. She is the director of connective ministries and assistant to the bishop in the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference.

TRINITY FRIENDS

By Donna & Dan Purnell,
Co-Chairs

Trinity Friends started two years ago at Tony's suggestion as we were coming out of the pandemic and looking for a way for our church congregation to come together.

It has been a wonderful opportunity for us to get to know members of our congregation on a deeper level by sharing time together, sharing a meal together or sharing an activity with each

Although Dan and I will no longer be putting groups together we hope you will reach out to those you may not know well. Our congregation is richer for having had the opportunity to know one another.

Lastly we want to thank those who stepped forward to host our groups. You made our job easier by facilitating initial get-togethers. Thank you to everyone who was a part of Trinity Friends!

Blessings,
Donna and Dan
Co-Chairs

TRINITY UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

By Sarah Heiner, Trinity UWF President

With many of our members unable to attend due to illness or travel, our March 8th UWF group was small but lively! We gathered at the Recovery Café for an informative and very impressive tour of their operation, with a talk from Bernie, their psychotherapy coordinator. The Café is one of the many outreach projects of Dove House, and due to the very hard work of many, especially Trinity's own Maura Walsch, it opened in January 2023 as part of a national network of Recovery Cafés. They are dedicated to the principle that they are "a community predicated on the belief that everyone deserves love and belonging. And, in fact, that meaningful belonging to community is essential to becoming the best versions of ourselves... everyone is in recovery from something." Members of the Café sign up, with no personal questions asked, but pledge to maintain sobriety while there, participate in Café operation in some way, and participate in one of their various "recovery circles" once a week. The Café operates a wonderful kitchen and serves a meal from 11 am to 7 pm Tues-Friday. At their location on the corner of Kearney and 19th, the Recovery Café has a fabulous view of Kai Tai Lagoon and Port Townsend Bay, and they have just added to their outside patio with a beautiful gazebo.

For more information or to become a volunteer check out their website at RecoveryCafeJC.org, call 360-385-5292, or just pop into the Café at 939 Kearney St. PT.

After our field trip, we returned to the church for our potluck and regular meeting and visiting. Our treasurer reported that, after giving a check to Dove House for the Recovery Café for $100, we still have more than $700 in our checking account due to a recent generous donation. We plan to revisit increasing our monthly local charitable donations to a larger amount at the December meeting when we review our checking account. Zoe Ann also reminded members that the United Women of Faith nationwide still have all their banking accounts under the old name of the organization, and therefore any checks to our chapter should be made out to "UNITED METHODIST WOMEN" for continuity.

- Our VP, Debra Olson, reviewed our upcoming schedule through the summer as follows:
- FRIDAY APRIL 12th - meet at Trinity for potluck and a presentation by TUMC's Brian Hageman, director of JC Parks and Fort Worden.
- FRIDAY MAY 10th - A "spring fling" and get-together potluck at Zoe Ann and Harry Dudley's beautiful home on Cape George Road. Possible speaker TBD.
- FRIDAY JUNE 14th - meet at Trinity for potluck and a presentation by the Marine Science Center.
- JULY AND AUGUST - NO UWF MEETINGS! HAPPY SUMMER!
- FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 13th-UWF annual election of officers. We will meet at the Cape George Colony Clubhouse and have our meeting and potluck using their clubhouse and kitchen. Weather permitting, we may be able to meet at their adjoining picnic space and enjoy the beach!

Other upcoming events for our group and the church to note: Annual church rummage sale scheduled for Friday and Saturday June 28th and 29th and the Autumn market scheduled for Saturday November 2nd. Keep pulling out and dusting off those donations!

Also, please note that the first Sunday each month is communion and is also a chance to tie your food donations to that sharing time as per Pastor Tony's preference. If not possible any given month, the basket for donations remains in the foyer next to the name badges carousel.

Keeping all members and their spouses/family members who have been ill, or are grieving, in our prayers.

Forging Forth into spring with Faith and Flowers!

CANDLELIGHT CONCERT

Thursday, April 25, 7:00 PM

By Beth Kissinger, John Miller, and Ron Portin

Chris Gilbert

Folk Songs from the British Isles

In-Person, Online & On the Air

Trinity United Methodist's Candlelight Concerts host Chris Gilbert, a local folk music musician, who will be performing at Trinity United Methodist Church on Thursday, April 25, at 7:00 PM for one set with no intermission.

The performance will also be streamed live at <https://trinityumcpt.org/> where you will find a link for the Candlelight Concerts Online and ways to donate. The concert will also be simulcast on KPTZ FM 91.9.

Admission to the concert is free (really!), with a suggested donation $15 per person. You are most welcome to attend whether you choose to donate or not. All of the proceeds from this concert will go to the Drewry family who own and operate the Courtyard Café. Last month, they lost their husband and father Will who died from a massive heart attack.

Chris's repertoire contains an eclectic mix of traditional and contemporary folk songs from across the British Isles; for this concert he will focus on those from England, Scotland, and Ireland. In the mix for this evening will be songs about love, tragedy, reminiscences, ne'er-do-wells, packet ships, myths, legends, and more. And each song will be introduced with background context, and maybe a translation or two!

If you used to enjoy listening to the Clancy Brothers & Tommy Makem, the Dubliners, and Ewan MacColl, then you'll love this concert. Audience participation is absolutely encouraged; and chorus words will be provided for you.

Chris has played at many venues in the Puget Sound area, including the Wooden Boat Festival, the Port Gamble Maritime Festival, the Port Angeles Maritime Festival, and the Northwest Folklife festival. He was the founder and leader of the Irish band "Happenstance," one half of the duo "Gilbert and McHagar," and a member of the shanty band "Nelson's Blood". ("Happenstance" and "Nelson's Blood" have performed at previous Candlelight Concerts, as has Chris as a solo singer.)

Chris spent his professional career in healthcare software engineering in both the UK and the US and returned to his passions of art and singing in 2007. He splits his time between Port Townsend and Gloucestershire, England. He was born in the East End of London and often lets his Cockney accent shine through. He cut his "folk-teeth" on the traditional English pursuit of Morris Dancing and learned to sing folk songs the hard way - in front of rough-and-tough British pub audiences. You can learn more from his website www.cj-gilbert.com.

Trinity United Methodist Church is located at 609 Taylor Street, across from the Community Center, in Uptown. Attendees should plan on arriving early - doors will open at 6:30. Masks are encouraged for in-person attendees.

TONY LU, PIANIST

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 6PM @ TRINITY UMC

A Concert of Original Piano Transcriptions of symphonic and chamber music from Beethoven to Piazzolla.

Join Tony Lu, pianist, lecturer, and improviser for a program of original piano transcriptions of symphonic and chamber works by Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Schumann, Brahms, Dvorak, Debussy, Poulenc, and Piazzolla. Audience will learn about the historical background and stylistic elements of each piece while getting to know the performance practice of making transcriptions.

BIO

Tony Lu holds M.M. in Piano Performance from Austin Peay State University and 3 B.A. degrees in Mathematics, History, and Music from Bennington College. He is an active faculty member at Sonata and Summer Sonata International Piano

Camp. Tony gives classes in music history, theory, classical improvisation, musicianship, and music literature in addition to lessons and chamber music coaching. As an active piano faculty member at Cardigan Mountain School, Tony teaches students of all ages and levels both in-person and online. He did extensive collaborations in chamber music. Such venues include Park-McCullough Historic House, Bennington Center for the Arts, Third Street Music School, and Lincoln Center in NYC. Tony gives lectures, masterclasses, and concerts across the US, from Hawaii to Florida. Tony's research areas include classical keyboard improvisation pedagogy, piano solo and duet transcriptions of symphonic/chamber works, and 20th/21st century neoclassical solo literature. He often performs his own transcriptions and improvises cadenzas in concerts. As a visually impaired pianist, Tony has always learned music by ear.

Note: This is not a Candlelight Concert, but a separate concert that Trinity is sponsoring.

The self-forgetful life seen in the cross must always be with us; in the rose we see the renewal of life always possible through hope and faith.

The subtle hint of the Olympic colors with the verdant green of foliage, the blue of the bordering and interior waters, with sunshine colors subdued in the gray of prevailing overcast, all blend in a décor quite faithful to the window's Victorian setting.

All is embraced in the traditional Gothic arch which in itself depicts the shape of "praying hands" and the profile of the "candleflame".

May there always be sufficient interior lighting for those on the outside to see the window as a guide to victorious living!

May those on the inside, in all kinds of weather, see a spirit and form reminding one of our saving faith in Jesus Christ our Lord!

Let this Memorial be a doxology in time. AMEN"

As this beautiful window has aged, just as we all do, repairs need to be made to keep it safe for the next 50 years or more. George Williams, supported by the Trustees and by your past monetary contributions, is organizing the repairs that will be done by a professional stained-glass company from Seattle. We are in need of another person to assist him. I am hoping that after reading this article and looking with fresh eyes at the window, someone will be inspired to step up to help George in this task.

We thank all who made this glorious gift to our church and our community. We honor them by continuing to enjoy its beauty and by maintaining it for future generations.

TRINITY HIKING GROUP

By Nancy Stevens

Spring is here and we couldn't be happier! Our dear Hiking Group will be seven years old on April 7, 2024! It has been a fabulous ride - great adventures with an awesome group of people! We are all so blessed to share these experiences. During these seven years we have hiked more than 437 times and covered more than 1,912 miles! We have averaged 4.38 miles per hike - that average is getting a little smaller each year, just as we are getting a little older!

We would love to have you join us for some fresh air, exercise and fellowship! Our hikes vary from 3 to 5 miles and are on easy trails. We stay near Port Townsend most of the time - with a few trips to favorite trails around the area now and then. If you would like the opportunity to join us when you can, please send your contact information to Nancy Stevens at nstevensnow@gmail.com. Being on the email notification list does not obligate you to show up - rather, it enables you to stay informed and join us when it works for you.
