SPOTLIGHT: DIANE THOMPSON

As told to Colleen Gawle

Diane was born in San Francisco, California. She was the first of 5 children born to her parents, Tony and Lucretia Flores. Diane's father and all 4 of her grandparents were born in Sicily, Italy. Her mother was born in Pittsburg, California. Her parents met and were married in San Francisco, bringing 2 large Italian families together.

She remembers growing up with lots of music and wonderful food. Diane grew up in the Santa Clara Valley through her sophomore year in high school. At that point her family moved up to the Santa Cruz mountains.

After graduating from Los Gatos High School, she attended San Jose State College (now University) where, in 5 years, she graduated with a BA in music and a K-8 teaching certificate. She met and married Larry Perry while in college. Within the next 3 years they had their 2 daughters, Alison (Hero) and Elisa (Welch). While the girls were young, Diane taught for 6 years, covering grades K-6.

Though not having a music position, she was able to teach music by trading class subjects with other teachers. During that same time she became involved in music theater as accompanist, playing for half a dozen large productions.

In 1976, Diane and Larry sold their home in Loma Prieta, moved into a school bus (converted to very comfortable living quarters) and, along with Diane's youngest sister Lisa, hit the road and traveled for the next year. Diane, having a teaching certificate, allowed them to take the girls out of school and teach along the way.

They traveled north and up through BC and back down on the ferry to Vancouver. They stopped and spent time (and fell in love with) the then, quiet town of Port Townsend. They settled here in 1977 where the girls went back to school. Larry worked as a carpenter and Diane immediately got back to working as an accompanist, and working in the political community.

She became full-time accompanist for the PT Community Chorus, playing 2 seasons a year for 30 years. She became music direc-

PASTOR'S LOG

By Pastor Tony Brown

My favorite part of my trip to Hawaii with Eric, besides getting married to an amazing man, was hiking to the active lava flow. In order to get to the lava we had to bike 3 miles and then walk 3 miles over the black and rugged basalt field. It was an eerie experience walking over the basalt as it cracked under our feet. The lava flow is somewhat unpredictable, and I wondered as we walked over the newly hardened rock if there was lava flowing just under the surface of what we were stepping on as we made our way towards the area where the lava was breaking out to the surface.

As we neared the area where people were gathering we began to feel the heat of the lava long before we saw the glowing orange goo that was flowing out like a river from the ground. It was so hot that standing 5 feet from the breakout raised the air temperature from 70 degrees to 120 degrees. At 3 feet from the breakout the air temperature felt like the heat coming out of an oven. Getting any closer was nearly impossible as the air temperature was too intense to withstand for more than a few seconds. We stayed for nearly 2 hours simply staring at the lava and watching it as it would build up under the cooled hardened rock and then burst forth like a raging river. The earth was being re-created right in front of my eyes as it had been doing since the beginning of time. Witnessing this new creation being formed right before my eyes was such a privilege.

The image of fire and God in the Bible appears often. Malachi 3:2 poses the rhetorical question, "But who will be able to stand up to that coming? Who can survive God's appearance? God will be like white-hot fire from the smelter's furnace. God will scrub [people] clean, refine them like gold and silver, until they're fit for God". Before I saw the lava I thought of this image of God as something that was scary, as if God was out to destroy people. However, after seeing the creative power of the lava I had a new take on these images of God.

Rather than seeing "the fire" imagery of God as a terrifying judgment, maybe we can see it as a creative force like the lava. It does burn up everything in its path, but it leaves a new creation in its pathway of transformation. To be honest, there have been (and there still are) parts of who I am that I welcome God's burning fire to consume and recreate. There were parts of me that I gladly welcomed God's lava flow of fire to burn up and recreate, leaving a new and miraculous creation of God. The addictions that controlled my life in my past needed to be completely destroyed and remade by the all consuming fire of God. In this way of understanding the imagery of God as a 'consuming fire' it is not something to be feared, but rather something to be welcomed.

We all have things about us that we know bring harm to us and to others. We have things in our lives that prevent us from living the abundant life that we know is possible in Jesus. Sometimes the only hope we have for transformation is the power of the Holy Spirit sweeping over us and destroying these landscapes of our lives so that something new can emerge that is a complete transformation and re-creation of God. God's destruction is not to punish us, but rather to destroy these strongholds of our lives and make all things new. 2 Corinthians 5:17 promises us that, "anyone united with Christ gets a fresh start, is created new. The old life is gone; a new life burgeons!" Destruction and judgment then is not something to be feared but something to be welcomed and embraced. As Christians we can pray with hope for God to tear down parts of us, refine us with fire, judge us with the wisdom and the ways of God, and transform the landscapes of our lives so that we can discover the new creations that are waiting to bubble to the surface. Yes, God wants to wash over us with fire, but only so we might be stripped of all that which brings harm to us and to others and be re-created to live lives like Jesus. So let us pray, "Come Holy Spirit, pour over me like molten lava, and make me into your perfect creation!"

TRUSTEES' REPORT

By Penny Vorster

Two big things accomplished in March: The Nursery has been painted a wonderful sunny yellow, thanks to Katie Findell, Bill Brock, Jeff Krida and myself; the Parsonage living room area has been painted by Morningstar and a new floor has been laid by Bill Brock, Jeff Krida, George Williams, Harvey Crow, and Don Edgar, with instruction by Josh Keele. And Bill painted the alcove by the Tool Room and the cupboards in the Fellowship Hall. So lots of progress! Thanks, all!

Mary Hedberg has been cleaning up the flower beds and planting bulbs getting the property all ready for Spring and Easter. The daffodils are up! Thanks Mary!

CANDLELIGHT CONCERT
Thursday, April 26, 7:00 PM
By Dan Purnell

Townsend Bay Ringers Presents

“Ring Around the World”

The Townsend Bay Ringers return Thursday, April 26, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. for their 5th appearance in the Trinity United Methodist Church Candlelight Series. The ten talented local musicians look forward to providing a whirlwind Handbell journey around the world, directed by Judy Schussler. The Townsend Bay Ringers, Port Townsend’s premier community Handbell Choir, is comprised of area musicians who travel weekly from as far away as Port Ludlow and Quilcene to rehearse for concerts in the community and performances at local churches and retirement homes.

When planning this year’s concert, director Judy Schussler focused on a wealth of music available from countries around the world to create an international theme. A variety of styles are especially suited to handbell performance because of the many unique bell techniques employed. The audience will hear lush melodies and harmonies, and unusual percussive effects that are achieved with “shakes”, “swings”, and “mallets” as well as the “martellato” technique of tapping the bells into foam padded tables. The 11 member ensemble plays a total of 51 Handbells and 37 Choirchimes requiring a great deal of teamwork. Each ringer plays only three to five bells that must be integrated seamlessly into the musical framework.

The musical parade of nations represents Great Britain, Russia, Japan, South Africa and South America. Selections will include “Scarborough Fair”, an English ballad made popular by Simon and Garfunkel and “Siyahamba”, a lively Zulu freedom marching song from South Africa. The “Great Gate of Kiev” depicts a grand city gate with majestic carillon bell towers. A lively Russian Dance will include several unique bell techniques. Sounds of the Far East will be reflected in two beautiful Japanese melodies with an almost haunting quality when played on choir chimes. The journey ends in South America with a popular Brazilian folk hymn full of fiery Latin American rhythms.

Richard McGuffin (left) and Leslie Lewis (right), members of the Townsend Bay Ringers Handbell Ensemble, display the largest and smallest bells to be played by the ensemble for the upcoming Candlelight Concert performance April 26, 2018 at Trinity United Methodist Church.

February’s Candlelight Concert with Val James & Friends was canceled, due to inclement weather, and has been rescheduled for Thursday, May 3rd at 7 PM. Enjoy jazz standards from the ‘30s & ‘40s. All proceeds will go to NAMI Jefferson County’s affiliate (National Alliance on Mental Illness).

CORNERSTONE CAMPAIGN

By Jill Buhler

We're baaaacckkk! Actually, we never left; we've been busier than ever working with the architects to refine the RFP language for the contractors who we asked to submit bids for our building project and completing the city permit processes.

We finally have the bids in hand and all three are higher than we anticipated. So, on April 22 we will host a congregational meeting to present the results of the bids and discuss next steps. We have several options that we are excited to show you.

Our vision has not changed and neither have the needs you expressed during the early stages of our campaign. We will get there...

Please join us on April 22 after Sunday's service. We promise it will be interesting and worthwhile.

Our next regular meeting is Monday, April 9, 5:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. All are welcome to attend.

ther had built. They found family and fell in love with the people and the place. On their third trip, 30 family members took Tony's ashes back "home" to San Vito Lo Capo, Sicily. That is Diane's favorite place on Earth, next to Port Townsend.

Diane loves working with all aspects of Trinity UMC. She feels it is the most comfortable church she has ever been in, being a part of the music and the beautiful, loving people. She also feels blessed to be part of her wonderful family which includes 4 siblings, 2 daughters, 3 grandchildren and her mom (who just turned 100). Life is full and rich!

APRIL HOLIDAYS

By Molly Jacobson

It's Easter! The highest and holiest of the Christian holidays, Easter is celebrated on the first Sunday following the first full moon after the spring equinox, usually occurring between March 22 and April 25. It falls on April 1st this year.

Easter lilies decorate the church, symbolizing beauty, purity and holiness.

Celebrations may be parades where women wear big hats, kids decorated Easter eggs hunts, and special lamb or ham dinners.

April 1st is also April Fools' Day where people play light-hearted jokes on one another. "Mother Nature" is apt to play sudden tricks with us too, sunny one day, cold and rainy the next!

Our hikes are on Friday mornings and we stick to easier trails, usually hiking 3.5 - 4 miles each time. Emails regarding the weekly Friday hike, are sent out early in the week, specifying details about the trail and carpooling arrangements.

In the past year we have hiked 46 hikes, 213 miles, averaging 4.6 miles per hike. What a joy!

TRINITY NURSERY NEEDS YOU!!

Trinity is planning on starting a drop-in infant child care program. This is a much needed service here in Port Townsend. We are in need of your skills, love, and prayers.

We have started an Amazon wish list, www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/3LOVI0EPK05S3, to help organize ideas of what we will need. The wish list is not necessarily a shopping list, if you find a better deal or a different similar product, that would be just fine. Gently used items are welcome too. If you have donations of baby toys, furniture, or other items please contact Katie Finedell before dropping items at the Church or in the nursery.

We also need your talents! If you quilt or knit we could use small blankets and quilts, they make great soft surfaces for babies to play on. We plan on utilizing volunteers from our congregation and also the community to staff the nursery. If you are interested in playing with babies or know someone that might like to help please let us know and please spread the word.

More information to follow in the weeks and months ahead. Katie Finedell: NurseryUMCTrinity@gmail.com

FINANCE COMMITTEE

By Charlie Dick, Finance Chair

In January, our monthly income fell behind expenses, but the good news was the prepaid pledges left us with more than enough cash on hand to meet current expenses. In February, history repeated itself as the monthly income was $9,401 compared to expenses of $14,256. Thus, the total Income for February was less than the expenses by $4,855. But again, the prepaid Pledges continue to provide us a positive cash balance to pay the bills. With just two months into the year, it's still early to start worrying about cutting back on elective expenses in anticipation of a cash shortage, but the Finance Committee is keeping a close eye on the situation.

This month, let's spotlight another Trinity gem story, the Community Outreach activity of the Candlelight Concerts that have been ongoing since February 2001, when the Nisqually Earthquake rocked Uptown PT enough to knock Trinity off its foundations. Shortly after the earthquake, Pastor Wendell Ankeny was approached by Mary Immel, Beth Mackey, Stan Goddard, and Dick Immel to begin a monthly venue they called Candlelight Concerts. These concerts were quickly initiated to help generate funding for the repairs, as the City was considering condemning the entire church building as a result of the structural damage. Fortunately, the City gave Trinity time to make repairs and the condemnation was averted. Later Evelyn & Willie Freeman took over the managing responsibilities until January of 2009 when the current impresario, Dan Purnell, became the Candlelight Concert Series' organizer and began coordinating the Concert Series. The proceeds from the concert donations still support TUMC restoration and general operations. However, once a quarter on average, the donations from concert attendees are given to specific, outreach activities in Port Townsend and Jefferson County. The Candlelight Concert Series provides a unique venue for the many talented musical artists that resided in and around Port Townsend and are well attended.

Do those funds add up to enough to make a difference? I'm glad you were wondering about that, as it just so happens they do. Counting just the last 5-years (2013 thru 2017), the funds shared among 11 local entities totaled $12,318! On average over the last 5-years, each donation amount for these Outreach programs was $770. Furthermore, three of those programs were supported more than once in that time period: Toys for Tots (5 times), the Food Bank and the Boiler Room (2 times each).

With that overview, I trust you will agree that the breadth of the local charities that were supported over the last 5 years is quite impressive, as their paraphrased mission statements below demonstrate:

- ◆ Boiler Room – building community by providing food, music, job training, art training and more
- ◆ Dove House – providing crisis intervention, shelter and advocacy for victims of domestic violence
- ◆ ECHHO – providing volunteer services and lending medical equipment to residents in need
- ◆ Gathering Place – helping enhance the lives of adults with disabilities
- ◆ Jumping Mouse – helping kids heal through expressive mental health therapy in a homelike place
- ◆ Key City Public Theater – producing thought-provoking and visually stunning productions
- ◆ Maritime Schools – connecting the community with its schools by supporting student learning through a sense of place
- ◆ NAMI Jefferson County – helping families and individuals living with mental illness to cope
- ◆ Port Townsend Food Bank – providing food to those families and individuals in need
- ◆ Toys for Tots – collecting and distributing toys as Christmas gifts to needy children

Keeping the Trinity physical site up and functioning has a positive impact on the Community that goes far beyond just providing a place for Spiritual Development, as the Candlelight Concert donations supporting local Outreach clearly demonstrates.
